Renewing Dignity Featured on The Morning Show!

Thank you to News4Jax for featuring Renewing Dignity and the importance of our mission to eliminate period poverty. Chris Warren, Renewing Dignity Vice-President, appeared on News4Jax Morning Show on August 18 highlighting the importance of ensuring women and girls have the sanitary menstrual supplies they need to go to school and work every day.

Southeastern Grocers, Inc. Give Generously!

Southeastern Grocers' generous employees collected a pallet of tampons and pads to support Renewing Dignity's mission to eliminate period poverty in our local community! Thank you Tracy Aquila and all your colleagues for leading this awesome Dignity Drive!

Renewing Dignity Raises $7,275 For National Women's Health and Fitness Day Appeal!

Thank you to Renewing Dignity's generous donors who contributed to our National Women's Health and Fitness Day Appeal! These funds allow us to purchase period supplies at wholesale, and with our partner Feeding Northeast Florida, distribute them to those on need in our community.

Mission Donors ($1,000+): John Allen,

Poppy Clements and Linda Watkins.

Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae Support!

A big shout out to the Zeta Tau Alpha Jacksonville Alumni for donating 2,270 tampons and pads to Renewing Dignity! Thank you to the 84 ZTA Jacksonville alumni!

RENEWINGDIGNITY

Eliminating 'period poverty' through distribution, education and advocacy

OUR MISSION is to eliminate period poverty through direct period product distribution, education, and advocacy. We believe that unmet menstrual hygiene needs are health and safety, dignity, equity, and social justice issues.
